Announcing Auditions for our spring programs:

"spellbound"

A brand new musical telling the story of "Sarah", a 8 year old girl who is shy and doesn't really have a lot of friends but LOVES to read fairy tales and pretend to be in the fairy tales she reads. Her older sister Kayla is tired of Sarah thinking fairytales are real and tells her to grow up and get over it. While on a camping trip in the woods with their dad, Kayla falls asleep and wakes up "spellbound" in the woods surrounded by fairytale characters such as Jack in the bean stalk, the white rabbit from Alice in Wonderland, The good witch AND the bad witch from Wizard of Oz" and the forgotten dwarf, "Stretch" (A tall GIRL dwarf), Tiger Lily, A Prince not so charming, and many more characters! Is this just a dream? Can she get away from the fairytale characters and help save the day? Most importantly can she learn not to judge a book by its cover?
